Public Hearing – On the Question of Voluntary Annexation

A petition requesting annexation was received on October 24, 2019 by the Bermuda Run Town Council. The area in question is below Winmock at Twins Drive which was purchased by Comet Development. The Town Council adopted a resolution to direct the Town Clerk to direct the sufficiency of the petition. The Town Clerk certified the petition as directed by G.S. 160A-31. The Town Council voted to hold a public hearing on the issue of annexation for Tuesday, January 14, 2020. Public Notice was advertised in the January 2 and January 9, 2020 editions of the Davie County Enterprise Record.

Mayor Cross Opened the Public Hearing

Council Member Heather Coleman seconded the motion. The motion was approved by a vote of four (4) in favor and none opposed.

Town Manager Comments - None

Council/ Mayor Comments

Curtis Capps – Stated that he is very excited about the appointment of Ken Peacock to the Council, saying that he will be a tremendous asset.

Mike Ernst – Said that it is great to now have a full Council, and that he's also very impressed with Rick Cross and his leadership skills as the Town's new Mayor.

Chris Fowler – No further comment.

Heather Coleman – Feels that Mayor Rick Cross has made the transition to Council Member a very easy and comfortable one, and she is excited about serving on the Council.

Mayor Rick Cross – Shared that he is very energized by everything going on within the County and the Town of Bermuda Run – Leadership Davie, the East Davie sewer project, Comet Bermuda Run, the appointment of Ken Peacock to the Council, and many other things to come. There will be Planning Session at the January Council Agenda Meeting where the Council and staff can brainstorm and share ideas for the upcoming year and how we can further achieve what's set forth in the Comprehensive Plan.
