Citizen Comments - NONE

Presentation – Davie County Elections Director, Melissa Parker

Mrs. Parker gave an overview of the functions, services, and responsibilities of the Board of Elections Department. She shared the updated schedule, as the Town of Bermuda Run will have a Primary on October 10 at Hillsdale Baptist to narrow candidates for Town Council from 5 to 4 (to fill 2 seats). Early Voting for the Primary and the November election both will be held at the Board of Elections. (www.daviecountync.gov/93/elections) Photo ID will be required to vote at this year's elections, and Ms. Parker went over ways to acquire proper ID.

Council Comments – Lots of exciting things going on around town. Vision Committee is making great strides on the flag project near Winmock as you enter Davie County from Forsyth (at the roundabout). Another Food Truck Friday is scheduled for September 8. Council thanked Melissa with the Board of Elections for sharing very useful information.

Mayor Comments – Special Called Meeting on August 22 at Winmock – reminded all that there is a form on the website for questions regarding:

- Discussion of current zoning regulations in the Town;
- Discussion of annexation;

- Discussion of the Town's Comprehensive Plan and Future Land Use; and
- Discussion of 10/70 allocation process and procedures and NCDEQ audit

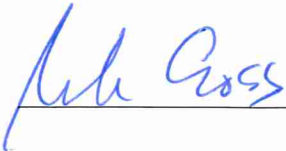

The first of the town's Summer Concert Series is on Saturday, August 12 with The Entertainers. He recently attended the ribbon cutting for EMS Station #4 on Cornatzer Road. Thanked Paul Dixon of Kinderton Village for recent tour around the Bahnson Lake. Thanked tonight's speaker and all in attendance, adding that it has been a privilege for him to serve as Mayor.

Adjourn August 8, 2023 Council Meeting

With no further business to discuss, Council Member Melinda Szeliga made a motion to adjourn. Council Member Heather Coleman seconded the motion. The motion was approved by a vote of four (4) in favor and none opposed.
